DESCRIPTION

Spacious Detached Villa on 2,300 m² on the Edge of Meerdaal Forest

A unique opportunity for those who love space, peace and nature! This spacious detached villa enjoys an exceptionally quiet location on the edge of Meerdaal Forest and offers numerous possibilities thanks to its generous proportions and wide plot. The property was remodelled in 1996, but is in need of renovation. The plot measures no less than 2,300 m² (23 ares) and has an impressive street frontage of 43 metres.

Ground floor: entrance hall, exceptionally spacious 72 m² living room, kitchen, storage room, bathroom, veranda with access to the garden and garage for one car with automatic door.

First floor: landing, 3 bedrooms, separate toilet and spacious attic offering further conversion potential.

Basement: practical cellar space.

Outdoor area: spacious private garden with beautiful views of the surrounding greenery, terrace and several parking spaces.

Location: fantastic setting for nature lovers, right next to Meerdaal Forest while still within easy reach of the village centre and all amenities. Public transport (bus and train), school, supermarket and other facilities are all nearby.

A property with exceptional potential in a beautiful green setting – ideal for anyone looking to renovate a spacious family home entirely to their own taste.
